Re: Conforti v. Hanlon, No. 20-cv-8267

Kim v. Hanlon, No. 24-cv-1098

Dear Judge Quraishi:

Counsel are in receipt of the Court's June 3, 2025 ruling (ECF No. 253 in Conforti). The remaining attorneys have conferred and respectfully submit this joint request for a four-week extension—to and including July 7, 2025—to submit the joint letter required under Section IV of the Court's ruling.

Determining appropriate next steps will require detailed consultation, initially with our respective clients and subsequently among counsel. We do not believe this process can be completed before July 7 for two principal reasons. First, June 10 is both the date of the primary election and the deadline for independent candidate petitions. All counsel are election attorneys and will be substantially engaged with election- and petition-related matters before, on, and after the June 10 date. Second, one counsel will undergo a medical procedure in mid-June and will require time to recover.

Accordingly, we respectfully request that the Court extend the current June 9 deadline for the joint status letter to July 7, 2025.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Flavio L. Komuves
